WHAT MR. HENNING SAYS ABOUT "EDDY" REFRIGERATORS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 24, 1893.

MR. R. H. HENNING, Manager of Eddy's Refrigerators, Dear Sir: I bought from you last summer one of Eddy's Refrigerators, and I have full confidence in your goods for my country house, and for my business. I have no more to say, but I have full confidence in your goods for my country house, and for my business. I have no more to say, but I have full confidence in your goods for my country house, and for my business.

Yours, truly, GEO. C. HENNING.

"Extracting" TEETH.
 There are ways and ways of extracting teeth, but there is only one way that is right. It is difficult work and requires extreme care and a special training. We have one of the very best extractors of teeth in America—a dentist of experience who makes a specialty of this one branch. Our work is painless, quick and absolutely sure.
PAINTLESS—Because we administer gas and novine, which relieves pain.
SAFE—Because we manufacture our own gas and know all about it—how many other dentists do?
QUICK—Because the work is done by a specialist who knows his business—and because of the improved instruments used.

OUR GREAT DRESS SHIELD FETE IS INTERESTING.

As F street window holds a unique display of several thousand pairs Dress Shields—long counters of first floor of 11th street building hold many more thousands. The Rubber "BISCUIT," the natural caoutchouc, is here, fresh from Peru. You can sit in the window. We've given years and dollars to give you the BEST Dress Shields. We want you to have them and we make this display that you may see them. Every pair is warranted perfect and sold with this guarantee.—We will not only refund money for these shields, but we hold ourselves responsible for any damage to a dress from the use of same, providing the shield has been properly attached to the garment and not stitched through the rubber. The rubber lining in every pair is light, thin, pure, impervious. Prices, from 10c. to 50c. pair.

(1st floor.....11th st. building.)

IN THAT 10,000 LOT OF JAPANESE FANS

There is necessarily a choice. Nearly all have cord lacings and tassels and the hand-painted decoration are rich and choice colorings, the latest and best. The prices are 8c. to 35c., exactly half of what they would be if these ladies bought such an immense lot. The Fan Bower on first floor is a novel sight. It took hundreds of fans to build it.

EXTRAORDINARY SALE
CAMBIC AND MUSLIN UNDERWEAR
BEGINS SATURDAY.

It's a sale of Ladies' Cambric and Muslin Underwear we are going to talk you about today. It begins to-morrow morning. Not an ordinary sale of ordinary garments, but an extraordinary offering of strictly first-class things at one-third to one-half their worth. Bargains, the like of which, we believe, have never been equaled and must command universal attention.

The lot is a big one—right from the factory—had to be so to get it at a price—such a price that we could tell it was are going to—at one-third to one-half its value.

PINE CAMBRIC AND MUSLIN SKIRTS, GOWNS, DRAWERS, CORSET COVERS. Trimmings of the quaintest laces, nainsook and Hamburg embroideries and ribbons. Every garment new, fresh and of this season's output.

The better you understand what this takes of cloth and trimming and work to produce such garments as these, the more you'll wonder at the prices we've made. Take any one thing quoted here, count what it would cost you to make it—then see what our price is—that's the whole story. Economical folks are the ones who will be quite keen to appreciate what we offer to-morrow.

GOWNS, SKIRTS, DRAWERS AND CORSET COVERS.

P RICE IS DOING ITS WORK.
Today we've had you busy among those lines of Boys' and Children's wearables that we've more than enough of—and some broken lots that are in the way in stock. Great "broadsides" have been cut off of the regular costs—making bigger what were already bargains. We planned this to be a two days' sale—because lots of you can't get around 'til Saturday.
There'll have to be some hurrying done your next—for these values, are too strong for such weak prices to hold them. Here is

THE BILL OF POSSIBILITIES.

Every item is of reasonable service—guaranteed by Capt. Bell is appointed inspector of docks for the city of Vernon and Marshall Hall Steamboat Company.

The weather interfered with the Columbia Athletic Club's excursion to Marshall Hall and the excursion of the Epworth League to River View.

ALEXANDRIA.

THE CLOSING OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Superintendent Kemper has arranged for the closing of the public schools of Alexandria after a full ten months' session, with the usual distribution of awards, etc., at Washington School, where boys from the first to the eighth grade, will close on Monday, June 26; Lee School, white girls, Miss Saline Yates, principal, on Tuesday, June 27; Washington School, colored girls, Miss H. Parker, principal, on Wednesday, June 28, and Hollowell School, colored girls, Miss Maggie Smith, principal, on Thursday, June 29. This year has been a prosperous one in the schools and Superintendent Kemper reports them in fine condition. A number of the pupils of Washington School received the university examination and will receive university certificates at the school closing.

CITY SCHOOL BOARD.

The city school board held its regular meeting last night. President F. L. Smith in the chair. An order authorizing the president and clerk to give three notes of the board in payment for the school furniture purchased last autumn was passed. The sum of $1,609 and will be paid for in three annual installments. An order was made directing the board to purchase two medals for the holders of the cards of honor for award at the closing of the schools. An order was made also for the purchase of deskinizers for use on the books of the scholars during the warm season. Bills of H. C. Wallace, R. W. French and Dymon Brothers for school supplies were ordered to be paid. A communication was received from the city council recommending the salary of Wm. E. Kemper, superintendent of schools, for an increase of salary. After some discussion as to the power of the board over the salaries of the teachers, the subject was referred to the Finance Committee that it might confer with the master committee of the city council as to an increase of salary by the city.

A FAIRFAX CONSTABLE FINED BY THE MAYOR.

Constable Alfred Bowden, who is an alleged peace officer of Mount Vernon district of Fairfax county, and maintains watch and pound near fishing on Hunting creek bridge, brought before the acting mayor yesterday and fined five dollars for disorderly conduct on the outer edge of the fourth ward. A complaint was made against him by the constable alleged a young man named Walker had taken from him occurred and a breach of the peace was made, which kept that section of the city disturbed for several days. The action of Judge Chichester has been called to the conduct of the constable.

NOTES.

The Gertie Lane house of this city has purchased the yacht Amerigue of Washington, and last evening went to Washington and brought their new purchase home.

One year ago, my heart once forever,
To you I gave myself, my life and love;
We shall bear each other up, no never,
Saver more on earth than I.

Home is sad, oh, God, how dreary,
Loneliness, loneliness, every spot
Lingers round me, still I feel your face,
Weary, for we hear his note.

With us each and every one,
How he suffered, still in just rejoicing,
Heaven is just below HIS WIFE.

Funeral from his late residence Monday, 6:30 a. m., Solvay requiem mass at St. Alloysius Church, 7 o'clock sharp.

O'REILLY. June 1, 1893, at 1:30 p. m., AGNES DAY O'REILLY, wife of James from her brother-in-law's place, Mr. C. G. Hall, 1705 I street northwest, Saturday, June 3, at 3 p. m.
